

I urge the commission to retain the media ownership rules. If the rule is changed the result will be media monopoly contrary to any sense of the free market. Trusts simply charge higher prices for an inferior product. Times have not changed, concentrated business operations are not beneficial to the pub